Disclosures

In 2009, the Federal Trade Commission {FTC} revised their guidelines regarding endorsements and testimonials in order to protect the public from any intentionally errant or misleading advertising that has been paid for by a group or company.

This site does represent a source of income and therefore we may occasionally incorporate endorsements or testimonials for brands and companies, so it is important to disclose the following to you:

1. The content of this website is a source of income and therefore may be used to promote products, services, or other businesses that we may have been compensated for.
2. We only work with brands that we truly love, have used and feel that reviews would be helpful to our readers.
3. Products promoted may have been gifted to us by advertising partners free of charge with no cost to ourselves. Please note, this does not ensure a positive review of the product in any way.
4. To maintain authenticity of this website, we will always provide our genuine opinions about a product or service whether or not we have collaborated with the brand or company and/or receiving payment to do so.
5. Please note associated products/services/brands or businesses within the content of this website may or may not be noted as an affiliate in every reference.

We will always give our true and accurate opinion of a destination / brand or product regardless of whether we have experienced this on a complimentary or paid basis. Our views are always our own and have not been influenced by others in order to retain the usefulness of this blog for our readers.

Embedded content from other websites

Articles on this site may include embedded content (e.g. videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from other websites behaves in the exact same way as if the visitor has visited the other website.

These websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed additional third-party tracking, and monitor your interaction with that embedded content, including tracking your interaction with the embedded content if you have an account and are logged in to that website.

How long we retain your data

If you leave a comment, the comment and its metadata are retained indefinitely. This is so we can recognize and approve any follow-up comments automatically instead of holding them in a moderation queue.

For users that register on our website (if any), we also store the personal information they provide in their user profile. All users can see, edit, or delete their personal information at any time (except they cannot change their username). Website administrators can also see and edit that information.

What rights you have over your data

If you have an account on this site, or have left comments, you can request to receive an exported file of the personal data we hold about you, including any data you have provided to us. You can also request that we erase any personal data we hold about you. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes.
